

CHRISTIAN T. FELTER, BA MD

42 Grange Park
London W5 3PR UK

T +44 2085664616
M +44 7515391825

cfelter@arujetpharmaceuticals.com

---

PROFILE:

Physician with diverse scientific, business, governmental, and regulatory experience including extensive work in the pharmaceutical industry in the USA and Europe.

SKILLS:

- Exceptional interpersonal skills with public speaking experience in many different situations.
- Direct line management experience.
- Diverse knowledge of the medical and scientific fields based on real world experience in the pharmaceutical industry and extensive education.
- Experience in interacting with and influencing governmental and regulatory bodies as well as key stake holders in multiple areas.
- Well travelled and well versed in world customs.
- Goal-oriented personality.

EXPERIENCE:

Medical Development manager,
Merck Serono UK,

2008-2009

Leader of a team responsible for the health technology economic appraisals of new and existing products by governmental and regulatory agencies. Work currently focuses on innovative new products for neurological disorders as well as new therapies for orphan conditions such as phenylketonuria. Final ABPI signatory.

Medical Director,
Otsuka pharmaceuticals, UK

2008

Director of the medical department with responsibility for medical information, pharmacovigilance, and medical affairs. Reporting into the managing director of the company, role was to co-ordinate and the medical functions of the company with the commercial functions. Also responsible for interaction with key stake holders. Final ABPI and MHRA signatory.

Global Medical Affairs Director,
Cubist Pharmaceuticals, USA:

2007

Medical lead of the team responsible for coordinating work with the company's global partners in Europe, Asia, and Australia. Participated in EMEA regulatory negotiations for novel indications. Traveled extensively to support global partners in negotiations with regulatory and governmental bodies in Europe, Japan, and China. Also, served as the medical voice for the global medical strategy for the company's portfolio as well as the cultivation of relationships with key opinion leaders and stake holders. Designed clinical trial protocols to support new indications for the company's marketed product. Final medical signatory

Medical Manager, rheumatology/immunology,
Wyeth, UK,

2006-2007

Direct line manager of team of 9 including several experienced physicians. Responsible for the medical management of the company's largest product. Coordinated all medical functions including regulatory submissions, governmental interactions, and health economic appraisals. Designed and commissioned clinical trials to support the marketing and further regulatory filings as well as developing the global clinical development plan in collaboration with headquarters in the USA. Final ABPI signatory

CHRISTIAN T. FELTER, BA MD

42 Grange Park
London W5 3PR UK

T +44 2085664616
M +44 7515391825

cfelter@arujetpharmaceuticals.com

---

Senior Medical Advisor, anti-infectives/vaccines,
Wyeth, UK,

2005-2006

Responsible for the line management of a team tasked with the medical development of the anti-infective and vaccines portfolio. Successfully launched a new antibiotic onto the European market as an part of the European Medical Expert Team for Anti-infectives. Worked with the MHRA during the product launch as the first molecule to go through the pre-vetting process. Played a key role in the introduction of one of the company's vaccines onto the routine immunization program for all children in the UK. Final ABPI and MHRA signatory.

Assistant Director, anti-infectives/vaccines,
Wyeth Pharmaceuticals, USA

2005

Therapeutic team leader for anti-infectives and vaccines for global medical communications. Served as a medical expert in microbiology and immunology with regard to promotional material, sales training, public relations, and clinical trials. Medical signatory

Medical Communications Scientist, anti-infectives/vaccines,
Wyeth Pharmaceuticals, USA

2004-2005

Responsible for the dissemination of medical information relating to the anti-infectives and vaccines portfolio for global medical communications.

Medical Science Liaison, anti-infectives,
Wyeth Pharmaceuticals, USA

2003-2004

Field-based medical affairs position responsible for direct dissemination of medical information regarding anti-infectives to health care professionals in the Mid-West region of the USA.

RESIDENCY AND FELLOWSHIPS:

Post-Doctoral research fellow, microbiology/immunology, Neoucom, Rootstown OH 2003

6 month research fellowship doing basic scientific research into the manner of retro-viral replication in animal models.

Resident physician, internal medicine, Medical College of Ohio

2000-2002

Part of the accelerated residency program in internal medicine. Responsible for direct patient care as well as teaching medical students.

EDUCATION:

Medical College of Ohio, Toledo, OH, USA — Doctor of Medicine 2001

Miami University, Oxford, OH, USA — Bachelor of Arts in Microbiology 1997